

Taraneh Javanbakht

Taraneh Javanbakht is a painter, composer, poet, writer, researcher and metaphysician who lives in Canada. She was born in 1974 in Tehran. She earned a M.Sc. and Ph.D. in chemistry in Paris at Pierre and Marie Curie University.

Taraneh Javanbakht was acknowledged by Reza Amrollahi, the president of the Atomic Energy Organization of Iran and the second in the administration of President of Iran, in the Second International Conference of Laser and Its Applications in 1993. She won the Editor's Choice Award from the International Library of Poetry in New York in 2003.

She composes music for guitar and piano. Her musics are in classic and modern styles.

Some of her plays:

- *Chess
- *Sea
- *Mill
- *Some individuals
- *Headache

Some of her scenarios:

- *The fifth way
- *Blue
- *Puzzle
- *Search
- *The last room

Her metaphysics (Netism), published in 2008, is based on the tendencies of the repetition (habits), the limits of the reason and the critics of the pure reason.

Javanbakht is a women's movement activist. Her article entitled «It is better that women have multiple jobs» was published in Gooyanews in 2006.

Her books were broadcasted in a television program at CJNT-TV (Pars Vision) in Montreal in 2008.

She participated in an international painting exhibition in 2007 in the cultural center of Montreal. Her paintings, in realism, surrealism and abstract styles, were broadcasted in a television program at CJNT-TV (Pars Vision) in Montreal in 2009.

Her website at <http://www.javanbakht.net> includes some of her artworks.